

MOBI Post-Survey 2012

1. A child is new to your practice. No shot records have been received from the child's previous provider, and the child's mother is vague concerning which vaccinations the child has had. Which procedure would you follow?	a. Not give vaccinations until the child's records are available b. Give age-appropriate vaccinations c. Begin vaccination series again
2. If a child is not up to date, what is the maximum number of vaccinations you would give during a single visit?	a. 1 injection b. 2 injections c. 3 injections d. 4 injections e. No maximum number - give age-appropriate vaccinations f. Number of injections depends on muscle mass
3. Which is the best Childhood Immunization Schedule to use?	a. 2010 Childhood Immunization Schedule b. 2011 Childhood Immunization Schedule c. 2012 Childhood Immunization Schedule d. Not sure
4. Which of these strategies will you try to routinely follow in your office? Circle all that apply.	a. Give vaccination during sick child visit b. Check immunization records of siblings while family is in the office c. Give vaccination without physical exam d. Refer families to public health clinics if they cannot afford immunizations or for other factors e. Screen charts for immunization dates during all visits f. Give parents Vaccine Information Statement (VIS) prior to vaccination g. Educate parents concerning true vaccination contraindications and immunization practices
5. Which strategies will you consider implementing?	a. Chart review b. AFIX process c. Electronic Health Record (EHR) check d. Not sure
6. Which strategies will you try to implement to help parents remember to return for vaccination? Circle all that apply.	a. None used b. Letter, postcard or phone call to remind a parent of an appointment c. Letter, postcard or phone call to follow up on a missed appointment d. Letter, postcard or phone call to remind a parent when a child is due for a vaccination e. Letter, postcard or phone call to follow up on a missed vaccination f. Not sure